

Please note that email and standard SMS messaging are not confidential methods of communication and may be insecure. Because of this, there is a risk that email and standard SMS messaging regarding any information you send might be intercepted and read by a third party. Do not include any protected health information in email or SMS message. Please call 401-484-0604 to set up an appointment or get more information.